

Try a pipeful or two direct from the factory

Not that it will be any better than the Edgeworth you buy in a store, but we want you to have your first Edgeworth amoke at our expense.

You may repay us by finding that Edgeworth just suits your taste. And If it doesn't-for there are some few men to whom Edgeworth is not just the thing-there's no harm done.

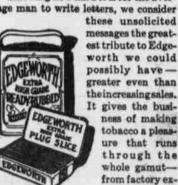

We are glad enough to send free samples in the same spirit that we'd hand you our pouch if circumstances permitted. We wish it were possible to save you even the little trouble of writing for Edgeworth.

Edgeworth is a likable smoke. Men who have tried it and found it to be the right tobacco for them never think of smoking other tobaccos. They'll tell you there are many good tobaccos-and there are. And when you offer them your pouch with "stranger" tobacco in it, they may use up a pipeful just to be friendly.

But notice how quickly they get back to their beloved Edgeworth!

Day after day Edgeworth fans write to us. They tell us human little stories, friendly anecdotes centering around Edgeworth. Often it is the number of years they have smoked Edgeworth that prompted them to

Knowing how hard it is for the average man to write letters, we consider messages the greatest tribute to Edgeworth we could possibly havegreater even than heincreasing sales. It gives the business of making tobacco a plensure that runs through the whole gamutfrom factory executive to the moker in the backwoods.

If you have never tried Edgeworth, let us repeat our offer, "Try a pipeful or two direct from the factory." All you have to do is to write "Let me try a pipeful or two" on a postcard, sign your name and address and send the postcard to us. The address is Larus & Brother Co., 48 So. 21st Street, Richmond, Va. If you want to add the name of your tobacco dealer, we'll make sure that he has Edgeworth in stock.

To Retail Tobacco Merchants: If your jobber cannot supply you with Edgeworth, Larus & Brother Com-pany will gladly send you prepaid by parcel post a one- or two-dozen carton of any size of Edgeworth Plug Slice or Ready-Rubbed for the same price you would pay the jobber.

THE MAN WITH DOUBLE BRAIN

Hayward Thompson, Memory Shocked During World War, Writes With Both Hands.

The majority of us do well to write egibly with either of our hands, but when a man is found who can write with both hands simultane. ously, and more than that-when he can write forward with one hand and back ward with the other, it is evident that he has a perfect right to the title of "Mys-tery Man." Hayan ex-service man in Denver, Colo., is just such a man. Due to a severe injury to his head, received during the war, he has what is known as a "double brain." One side of this brain directs the writing of one hand while the other side governs the other hand.

Thompson's memory reaches back only to the time when he left a hospital some months ago. He remembers nothing of his life before that time. It was through the veterans' bureau that he established his identity as Hayward Thompson. Of his family, former friends, his work and home before the war and his activities during the war, he has been able to 'learn nothing. The veterans' bureau and the Colorado department of the American Legion have been mak-ing every effort to help Thompson learn of his past,

THE REAL UNKNOWN SOLDIER

Child of Streets, Picked Up by Kindhearted Brothers, Never Knew Who He Was.

Tragic though the story is of a soldier whose identity was lost after his life had gone out on the field of battle and whose cross in Flunders simply says, "Unknown Soldier," his story is not shot through with such pathetic glory as is the story of a lad who never knew who he was and who gave his life for a country in which he had never known a mother's love or a father's pride. Every mother who does not know just where her son is buried, weeps over the grave of the unknown soldier, thinking that perhaps he is her son. Over the grave of the boy who has always been unknown there are no mourners.

A tiny bundle of humanity was picked up in a Baltimore street some twenty years ago; it was a baby boy. When after a thorough search, no one was found who would claim him, he was taken to be reared by two brothers, who gave him the name of Edward John Evangelist Smith. When he was old enough, they sent him to Mount Saint Mary's school to be educated. In 1917, before the boy's education was finished, a Marine recruiting officer visited Mount Saint His story of the country's need for men caused "Smith," as he had come to be known, to enlist. He went overseas and took part in every engagement in which the Fifth regiment of marines participated. On the morning on which the armistice was signed, one of the last German bullets flying claimed "Smithy" as its victim. Wells Hawkes, "Smithy's" captain, has started a fund to erect a monu-ment to "Smithy".

WOUNDED ON ARMISTICE DAY

Buckeye Naval Officer Holds Distinction of Being Injured in Action After Close of War.

O. O. Rolf of Toledo, O., holds the unique distinction of being a United States naval officer wounded in action after the signing of the armistice which closed the World war. As a naval lieutenant and executive officer of merchant ship. Rolf was severey wounded when his ship was fired on by a German submarine as it left La Polis, France, on the afternoon of November 11, 1918.

After several months in hospitals in England and on the continent, Rolf returned to America and resumed the practice of law in Toledo.

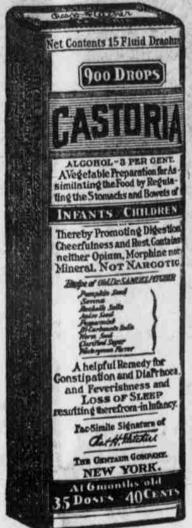

The Young Mother.

THE ILLS OF INFANTS AND CHILDREN should be so well known to the youngest of mothers that a reminder or a repetition of the symptoms of illness seems unnecessary, yet there are some mothers who overlook a feverish condition, a little colic, or a disposition to be irritable. If not corrected they may lead to serious sickness. And to correct them, to bring Baby back to its happy self, is so easy by the use of Castoria-a medicine prepared just for infants and children. It will regulate the bowels (not force them), aid digestion and so bring quiet and rest.

Fletcher's Castoria has been doing this for over 30 years; regulating the stomach and bowels of infants and children. It has replaced the nauseating Castor Oil, so-called Soothing Syrups, poisonous Paregoric and other vicious concoctions in the homes of true and honest mothers -mothers who love their children.

Those mothers will give their babies foods and medicines especially prepared for infants and children.

A Word About Truth.

"Great is Truth, and mighty above all things." So says the Old Testament, yet it is equally true to-day. Truth shows no favors, fears no enemies.

From the inception of Fletcher's Castoria, Truth has been the watchword, and to the conscientious adherence to this motto in the preparation of Fletcher's Castoria as well as in its advertising is due the secret of its popular demand.

All imitations, all substitutes, all just-as-good preparations lack the element of Truth, lack the righteousness of being, lack all semblance even in the words of those who would deceive.

And you! Mothers, mothers with the fate of the World in your hands, can you be deceived? Certainly not.

Fletcher's Castoria is prepared for Infants and Children. It is distinctly a remedy for the little-ones. The BABY'S need for a med-icine to take the place of Castor Oil, Paregoric and Soothing Syrups was the sole thought that led to its discovery. Never try to correct BABY'S troubles with a medicine that you would use for yourself. MOTHERS SHOULD READ THE BOOKLET THAT IS AROUND EVERY BOTTLE OF FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Sensitive Cripples. "Cripples are more touchy about their vanity than other people," observed a local manufacturer whose partner has only one leg. "They have more will-power than the rest of us and are often more cheerful. But they are always imagining nonexistent slights."

The speaker refused to be quoted for an interview unless his partner was also mentioned. "In fact," leave me out of it altogether," he said, "Give me the glory. When I was married, the paper had a long story about the affair. My business was incidentally mentioned. My partner quarreled violently with me for two days because his name did not also appear."-Detroit News.

Not Worrying.

The precociousness of modern youth is aptly shown in the following conversation which took place between a woman and a five-year-old boy:

"I guess I'm a bad old woman to be humoring and spoiling a little boy like

"But, Aunt Emma, that Isn't worrying me a bit."

Luxury Surrounding Grandees of Three Centuries Age Can Hardly Be Imagined.

The luxury displayed at the present age by the great of Spain can in no way compare to that of their ancestors of three centuries ago. The duke of Albuquerque, we were told recently by the marquess of San Simon, can boast of being the owner of many pieces of furniture made of silver left to him by his father. In order to weigh and make the inventory of the silver and gold tablesets which were left, it was necessary to devote two hours per day for a period of six weeks. There were 1,400 dozens of dinner plates, 500 large platters and 700 smaller ones, all else being in proportion to this magnificence Among other relics he has 40 silver step-ladders which were used to ascend .o the tops of the cupboards which held these treasures.

The duke of Alba, who says that his father was not of the richest, had left to him 600 dozens of dinner plates

Grammar Doesn't Improve. With all the money spent on public education the standard of public speech does not seem to improve much. At a recent ball game when a man fainted the announcer paraded in front of the grandstand calling loud-ly, "Are there a doctor in the audience?" At the circus the ballyhoo man for the tattooer advised the world, "Have your work did here." And the police department still paints on the "Drive careful." - Detroit

VAST RICHES OF OLD SPAIN Solution of "Lake of Mystery" Sought An attempt to solve the secret Lake Eyre, called the "mystery lake" in the interior of Australia, soon will be made by a scientific expedition. The lake is 400 miles from the nearest settlement. Seven rivers from the hills, miles away, penetrate Australia's great interior desert, and tumble their contents into the lake. In rainy season these rivers become enormous fleoded areas. Without any apparent outlet, Lake Eyre, an inland sea as the result of the flooded rivers, contracts and becomes a lake again in a surprisingly short time
